

Canadian Processing

Software platforms and businesses in Canada can now leverage Fortis' proprietary technology that was once only available to U.S. clients.

Fortis has expanded its borders to Canada

The Canadian roll-out supports omni-channel credit card processing, and Interac Debit acceptance, with electronic funds transfer (EFT) coming soon as a fast follower for B2B and recurring payment clients. Customers in Canada can access the full suite of Fortis' solutions through award-winning APIs, which create a seamless integration to the customer's existing payment software solution.
